

VOTE FOR Edwin Williams For Four-Year Commissioner

The Only Candidate for Commissioner Who Stands for the Non-Partisan Letter of the Law Governing Commission Form of Municipal Government.

To the People of Ogden:

In announcing myself as a nonpartisan candidate for the office of Four-Year Term City Commissioner, I commit myself to the following principles:

If elected, I pledge I will retire from my business and devote my undivided time and attention to the office.

I hold that all franchisees belong to the People of the City, and not to any one man, or set of men, and I am unalterably opposed to granting any franchise without the consent of the voters of the City.

I am in favor of Municipal ownership of all public utilities, and believe they should be operated for and in the interest of the people—the consumers—and, if elected, I pledge my unceasing efforts toward a realization of that end.

I believe that our City Taxes are excessive, and, if elected, I pledge to work for a reduction of the present exorbitant rate of taxation. I am in favor of better streets for Ogden City.

I am in favor of enforcing all laws and ordinances, which are enacted. If laws and ordinances are not desirable, let them be repealed, but while on the books they should be enforced.

If elected, I pledge myself to a progressive, business and economical administration. I believe in reducing expenses in every department of the City consistent with efficient service.

I make the foregoing platform to be kept, and if elected I shall keep it.

EDWIN WILLIAMS.

THIRTY DAYS GIVEN TO AN OFFENDER IN COURT

Under circumstances not strong enough to bring them to trial on a more serious charge, John McCue, A. Warren and D. J. Foley were convicted of vagrancy in the municipal court. McCue was given 30 days and the other two were given 15 days. The circumstances in the case were somewhat interesting as the men were arrested at different times, in different places and by different officers and, according to testimony, were mixed up in the same case.

The testimony was to the effect that one of the men had obtained a check for $28, legally or otherwise, from a fourth party. The money was then "blown" and the trio participated in the treats. While all three confessed to sharing in what was bought with the $28, none would admit having taken the lead in spending it.

John McKay and William Jones were given five-day jail sentences with the usual alternative, for getting drunk after being released on a suspended sentence.

C. D. Cooley, Charles Ebbell and Dan Cronin, plain drunks, were given suspended sentences, and Dallas Manley, charged with disturbing the peace, was treated likewise. P. J. Dillon and George Campbell, charged with obtaining a meal and refusing to pay for it, had their cases taken under advisement. Mike Griffiths pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery and had his trial set for October 18. Wilbur Murphy, charged with exceeding the speed limit in an automobile, pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for October 19.

In the case of the state vs. C. F. Chapman, the defendant was found guilty of the charge of testing a worthless check and had his case taken under advisement. According to the evidence, he issued a check for $11 on the Pingree National bank, without having funds there. In his own behalf, the defendant stated that he had intended transferring his bank account from a bank at Ely, Nev., to the Pingree bank in Ogden, but had failed to do so. He also promised to have the transfer made immediately to insure J. T. Rushmer to whom the check was made out, against loss.

BRILLIANT WEDDING IN PYTHIAN HALL

When Miss Minnie Albert and Abraham Bernard Wolfe were married last Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock one of the most elaborate weddings ever given in Ogden was witnessed by over one hundred guests in the Knights of Pythias hall on Grant avenue.

The large hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms. From the doorway to the altar a path of palms lead to a canopy of red velvet and gold under which the nuptial ceremony was performed by Rabbi S. Baskin of Salt Lake.

In the bridal procession were the ushers, Morris Rosenblatt of Salt Lake, Jack Wolfe of Boise, Idaho, brother of the groom, and Dr. Joseph Gantz of Ogden; the bride's maids, Misses Fannie Shapiro, Rose Hirschberg and Jennie Roe of Salt Lake and the maid of honor, Miss Sara Albert, sister of the bride. Then followed the groom and best man, Harry Roe of Salt Lake, and the bride accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Albert, who gave her in marriage at the altar.

The bride, a charming brunette, was beautifully gowned in white faille with royal court train and pearl trimmings. She wore a bridal veil of white chiffon attached to her hair with a dainty wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white brides' roses. An exquisite diamond lavalliere, the gift of the groom, was the only article of jewelry worn. The gift was of beautiful design in pendant style, three lovely gems attached to a cluster of nine diamonds. Miss Sara Albert, as maid

D. Rosenthal, W. Kreines, Harry Albert, B. Oppman; Mrs. B. Syllin, Mr. Joseph Kreines; Misses Frances Marsh, Esther Seppich, Leona Purdy, Jennie Cohen, Marian Benowitz, Evelyn Benowitz, Irma Davidson and Sara Albert; Messrs. Isadore Korb, Herman Korb, Leo Brown, Morris Kreines, Dr. Joseph Gantz, Harry Lubin, Sam Rosenthal, William Rosenthal and Nat Segal.

From Salt Lake City were: Messrs. and Mesdames A. Cline, A. Pappé, M. Landau, S. Rosenblatt; Mrs. N. Rosenblatt, Mrs. J. Shapiro, Mrs. N. Horn, Mrs. D. B. Baron, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. J. Prunkin; Messrs. Abe Axenbrad, Abe Cline, Ezra Cohen, Martin Frumman, Joseph Goldstein, Hubert Wolfe, Morris Rosenblatt, Isadore Appelmann, Simon Shapiro, Harry Roe, Jack Tanenbaum, Joseph Slater, Sam Slater, Barney Cline, Abe Salmenson, Rabbi Baskin, Mr. Alkow; Misses Rose Hirschberg, Bessie Shapiro, Fannie Shapiro, Sara Shapiro, Jennie Roe, Sara Nathan and Jennie Cline; Julius H. Strauss of Mt. Pleasant, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. J. Sobie, Mrs. Bloom, Miss Jennie Bloom and Leo Sobie of Brigham; Mrs. B. Lewis of Bingham, Utah; Mrs. B. Schonfeld of Helper, Utah; Mrs. Oscar Feldcher of Rock Springs, Wyo.; Mrs. M. Wolpert of Blackfoot, Ida.; Jack Wolfe of Boise, Ida.; Arthur Roberts of Minneapolis; Abe Berger and Joseph Slatnik of St. Joseph, Mo.

MRS. A. B. WOLFE, FORMERLY MISS MINNIE ALBERT.

of honor, was daintily dressed in yellow chiffon over messaline. She carried a Jessie Wilson basket of Cecil Bruner roses. Mrs. Albert, matron of honor, wore a gown of black faille with chiffon trimmings. Miss Fannie Shapiro was attractive in a gown of yellow crepe de chine with lace trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of roses. Miss Rose Hirschberg was gowned in pink taffeta and Miss Jennie Roe wore a gown of pale green taffeta of the same design. They also carried shower bouquets of pink roses. The groom, best man, father of the bride and ushers, were attired in conventional black.

While the bridal party entered the hall and proceeded to the altar, and during the ceremony, a stringed orchestra, under the direction of Miss Lillian Thatcher, softly played the Lohengrin processional march. Following the ceremony they rendered the Mendelssohn wedding march in a highly commendable manner.

The guests were then ushered into the banquet room where a beautifully appointed five-course dinner was served by four young ladies under the supervision of Mrs. S. H. Winter. The banquet room was profusely decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. The long tables were especially pretty with streamers and bows of pink tulle and noisettes of maiden hair fern and palms laid on the snowy linen while tall vases of pink and white chrysanthemums were placed at intervals.

Mr. Morris Rosenblatt of Salt Lake acted as toastmaster and the following responded: Messrs. Alkow, Simon Rosenblatt, Ezra Cohen, Julius Strauss, Dr. Gantz, Abe Cline and Rabbi Baskin. A pleasant feature was the reading of seventy-five congratulatory telegrams received by the bride and groom. They were read by Mr. Rosenblatt.

After the banquet, dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, an interesting program, including many late dances being arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe have many friends in Ogden and Salt Lake and outside the state who showered them with many lovely gifts of cutglass, silverware and a host of others too numerous to mention.

After a brief honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe will be at home in Bingham where the groom has an established business. They have planned a tour of the eastern states and Canada after the first of the year.

Tuesday evening the following guests were present at the Pythian hall: Messrs. and Mesdames S. Appelmann, William Benowitz, Joseph Benowitz, Harry Davis, Harry Korb, when delicious refreshments were served by Miss Carter and her mother, Mrs. Hawkins. A large basket of grapes surrounded with autumn leaves formed the central decorative piece for the table where the following guests were seated.

VISITED IN SPOKANE.

Mrs. Alfred Christenson and children returned the early part of the week from Spokane, Wash., where they spent the past month visiting with Mrs. Christenson's mother Mrs. T. A. Matthews formerly of Ogden. Mrs. Christenson was accompanied by her aunt Mrs. Smith, who returned to her home in Milwaukee, last Thursday.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrs. W. J. Barnes entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday of her little daughter, Mildred. The children enjoyed the delightful sunny hours in games and sports on the lawn. Refreshments were served from the dining room table where Halloween decorations were in evidence. A beautiful birthday cake with eight lighted candles was the centerpiece and a pumpkin doll was placed as a souvenir at each plate.

FIFTH WARD W. C. T. U.

The Fifth Ward W. C. T. U. will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. Dr. Gordon, 551 Twenty-fifth street. All ladies interested in temperance work are invited.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

Invitations have been issued for a Halloween dancing party to be given at the Royal Dancing academy by the Misses Calva Berry and Lily Evans, Friday evening, October 29. Dancing will commence at 9 o'clock. The young ladies are endeavoring to make the event very interesting for their friends.

To the Citizens of Ogden

Making my campaign entirely alone and personally defraying all the expenses, I do not feel able, on the Primary election day, to hire automobiles to haul all those who have expressed themselves willing to vote for me, to the polls.

Should you own an automobile and care to loan it to me, it will be very much appreciated.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD COMPLETES WORK AT BRIGHAM

Brigham, Utah, Oct. 15.—The Presbyterian synod of Utah adjourned this afternoon at 5 p. m., after a three-day session that proved most successful in every respect, and the ministers from all parts of the state returned to their homes late this evening.

At 9 o'clock devotional services were led by the Rev. Ray B. Norton of Mt. Pleasant at the church, after which the ministers repaired to the Commercial club, where the day's sessions were held. Just before the close they thanked the Commercial club, the local church members and all others connected with making the meeting the success it was.

Mrs. Armsby made a twenty-minute talk on the importance of evangelistic teaching in the Sunday schools. Principal interest centered around the report of the committee on college board and Westminster college, at which time Dr. J. E. Clark of Nashville, representing the college board of New York, made a most able address.

A meeting of the corporation of Westminster college, which is made up of the Presbyterian ministers residing in Utah, was held, at which the six trustees were re-elected for another term of three years. Following are the trustees: H. G. McMillan, Dr. J. S. Gordon, W. C. Brown, H. L. Haynes, G. W. Martin and W. C. Orem.

Before adjournment was taken an address was delivered by the Rev. C. A. Killie of Pao Ting Fu, China. He told of the methods of work and of the self-sacrificing character of the native Christians and expressed his appreciation of and confidence in the president of the Chinese republic, Yuan Shi Kai.

Many prominent women of the state gathered here today to attend the annual meeting of the women's synodical missionary society, which convened in three busy sessions, with the closing session to be held tomorrow. This morning Mrs. Horace Sanderson of Salt Lake conducted devotional exercises.

The reports of the following three Presbyterian presidents, Mrs. Wittenberger of Logan, Mrs. Cheevers of Salt Lake and Mrs. C. H. Hamilton of Delta were encouraging. These women were re-elected presidents and also to the committee on nominations. The committee on resolutions appointed is composed of Mrs. L. M. Gillilan of Salt Lake and Mrs. Hamilton of Delta. Reports were submitted by Mrs. Aldrich, Mrs. Martin of Manti, Mrs. Hanchett, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. G. W. Martin. Addresses were given by Mrs. Ormsby of Idaho and Mrs. Ingersoll of Los Angeles.

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. G. W. Martin, Manti; first vice president, Mrs. Horace Sanderson, Salt Lake; second vice president, Mrs. John Meeker, Spanish Fork; recording secretary, Mrs. A. B. Green, Salt Lake; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. H. Ferry, Redlands, Cal.; treasurer of contingent fund, Mrs. W. Johnson, Salt Lake; secretary of young people, Miss Mary Martin, Manti; secretary of freedmen, Mrs. A. G. Frank, Brigham; secretary of literature, Mrs. McLeese, Salt Lake; mission study, Mrs. C. H. Hamilton, Delta; Sunday schools, Mrs. J. E. Carver, Ogden; secretary of light bearers, Mrs. L. M. Gillilan, Salt Lake; secretary of temperance, Mrs. F. G. Reynolds, Logan; secretary of missionary letters, Mrs. Theodore Lee, Spanish Fork. A session was held this evening, at which the Rev. C. A. Killie of China gave an interesting lecture on the mission work in China. The meeting was followed by a reception by the women of Brigham City.
